I have a six page letter written by James to his wife on April 8, 62 the day after Shiloh. It was written on captured Union stationary and describes the battle and the casualties of the 21st. This is the same list of casualties published in the Mobile Press on April 12. It is indeed sad that he died upon his arrival home. I also have a photo in uniform of James.

Again, thank you for your time and interest. Please let me know if anything comes up in your research regarding James. Also let me know if I can help you in any Madison Co. work.

Evelyn Stephens

Evelyn Stephens said she has had a passion for nursing since a very early age. Growing up with her brother, who suffered from an illness, Stephens knew she wanted to help people in need. Stephens is the district nurse for the Moss Point School District and has been working there for 10 years. Along with three other district nurses, the job of taking children to the doctor and getting medication falls to Stephens. She finds it rewarding to watch children learn when they no longer have health concerns. Stephens spent many years in the military where she got the chance to travel. Now she enjoys traveling with her two children showing them the things she has seen. Stephens, a life long resident of Moss Point, says she enjoys the simple things in life like gardening and getting her home back to normal after Hurricane Katrina.

Wayne Stephens

Wayne Stephens splits his working time between two downtown Ocean Springs gift shops, Salmagundi's and On the Menu. Stephens is a retired music teacher who moved to the Coast in 1977 to teach in Biloxi. After 27 years of teaching, he retired and joined the world of small town retail. Stephens said he enjoys spending time with the people he works with and loves to meet the new and interesting people who come into the two stores every day. A frequent traveler, he especially enjoys conversing with people from different parts of the country and world. "I've been traveling to Europe since about 1984. I went every three years while I was teaching, then every year since I've retired. I like to meet people from European countries and talk about our experiences." His first love, however was the theater. "I've been involved in that since forever, it seems," he said. He was one of the founding members of the Walter Anderson Players and has acted in numerous musicals and plays with many organizations on the Coast. Many may recognize him as the character, Riff Raff, from the cult film, "The Rocky Horror Picture Show." The Walter Anderson players annually re-enact a scene from the movie on Halloween night in downtown Ocean Springs. Currently, Stephens is working on a production of "My Fair Lady" where he plays Professor Higgins. The play will run at the Saenger Theater in Biloxi in late October.
